

My soul is the part of me I least understand. Somewhat an illusive commodity... but I know this of my soul... "It believes". It believes in me, in you, in us, in the bond that we have embraced, and will continue throughout this life and whatever lies beyond.

My soul longs for something greater, is patient, is kind, not envy, not boastful, not proud, not rude, not self-seeking, not easily angered, keeps no record of wrongs, does not delight in evil, rejoices with the truth, always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres, never fails, and endures forever everlasting.

I'll forever love you... and this I vow to the end of time. All my love, for all your life.

How to Stay Positive in a Relationship

Every relationship has ups and downs and sometimes it can be a challenge to stay positive in a relationship. The important thing to keep in mind is that nobody is perfect and it is normal to have good and bad days with your loved one. Of course the number of happy moments should well exceed the unhappy ones for a relationship to succeed. There are several ways in which couples can keep their relationship positive and happy.

First, it is important to be good communicators with each other. So often, poor communication is at the root of a lot of relationship issues. Both people in a relationship need to equally contribute to creating open communication with each other. The more each other knows and understands about the other, the better the relationship tends to be. It is when one person in the relationship becomes too introverted and does not communicate or has secrets that problems arise. If you find it too difficult to communicate openly in your relationship, you should ask yourself if you are really with the right person for you? When you are with the right person, communication should come naturally between the two of you.

Another key to having a positive relationship is to be patient and understanding of each other. Too often men and women grow impatient with each other and prematurely get upset or frustrated. Sometimes good things are just about to happen when we grow impatient and frustrated. Couples need to exercise more patience and understanding toward each other. The best things in life often require a person to wait Courtship is the process of selecting and attracting a mate.

It is governed by a complex set of unwritten rules that are loosely defined as etiquette. Such rules dictate where, when, with whom and in what manner we all attract the opposite sex. We generally obey these unofficial rules by instinct but we also only become aware of the rules when someone commits a breach of them.

Online Advertising for Dating Services

Companies offering dating services are investing increasing amounts in advertising, according to a new study, with online advertising seeing particular growth.

Research carried out by Nielsen Monitor-Plus found that such firms in the US, in particular online dating sites, spent $127.3 million advertising online in 2006. This is up from $88.9 million spent the previous year and the second highest area of investment for dating services. Of the 12 dating services firms advertising online, seven companies were "almost exclusively using the internet for advertising", the report found.

The top ten dating services firms accounted for 96 per cent of the total advertising spend for the industry, some $290 million of $302 million.

It only makes sense to advertise your Dating Site online and it's even more important if your site is new in the industry.

or be patient it seems. Don't deprive yourself of life's greatest joys by being impatient.

Also, it is important to value the small things in your relationship that you appreciate and which bring you joy. It is though appreciating the little things that people experience a happier relationship and happier life in general. Very often, people need to feel valued and appreciated for the small things that they do for the person that they love. If kind or loving gestures go unnoticed or unappreciated, negativity enters into the relationship. Appreciate a smile, a touch a loving gesture and all the thoughtfulness that your loved one showers toward you. If good things are appreciated, say so and acknowledge the blessings and love around you. Appreciation nurtures the soul and builds love.

If you find that you are not in a good relationship for you, be brave and move on! Don't stay in a relationship that is filled with negativity and unhappiness. Life is too short to be unhappy. Find a positive and happy relationship for yourself if you are not in one! There is nothing wrong with pursuing personal happiness in your life.

Another significant factor in having a positive relationship is to acknowledge

Dating or courtship is the process of choosing and attracting a mate for companionship, sex, marriage and/or sexual reproduction. It is also the pre-arranged meeting (exclusive) of two people with mutual interest in one another to communicate with and to comprehend through shared participation in social activities. According to western tradition, a date is an occasion when one socializes with a potential lover or spouse for the purpose of being deeply acquainted with each other as also to come to an understanding whether they wish to have a purposeful relationship.

Though dating was generally sponsored through friends or relatives, the Second World War diminished such opportunities to a great extent, giving rise to commercial dating agencies. Newspapers and magazine ads contributed to the cause too. However, post-Internet days have brought a sea change in dating and mate-finding anonymously. Online dating services today provide unlimited dating extravaganza on the monitor without any commitment tagged to it. Ladies and men can now tap the online resources with the click of a mouse and carry on love duels without disclosing identity. Though this online intimacy can be instantly arousing, yet its pitfalls are of concern since none of the parties can ever guess an inch of the other's inner life or face read either of them. However, the world becoming more and more full of 'singles', online dating gives the opportunity to know more and more people and even find a life partner.

the differences between women and men. Understand that love and caring is expressed in different ways by different people and especially different by men and women. Don't be so eager to say that someone is right and someone is wrong in a relationship. Accept each other's difference of approach or differences in perception of things. Again, if you are not on the same page and there are too differences between you, move on! Don't stay in a relationship in which you are not happy! Find the love of your life!
