

My soul is the part of me I least understand. Somewhat an illusive commodity... but I know this of my soul... "It believes". It believes in me, in you, in us, in the bond that we have embraced, and will continue throughout this life and whatever lies beyond.

My soul longs for something greater, is patient, is kind, not envy, not boastful, not proud, not rude, not self-seeking, not easily angered, keeps no record of wrongs, does not delight in evil, rejoices with the truth, always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres, never fails, and endures forever everlasting.

I'll forever love you... and this I vow to the end of time. All my love, for all your life.

A Touch, a Kiss, a Smile

What is a romantic moment? Is it a gesture? A gift? A thought? Passion? Yes, to all of the above. By learning the desires and needs of your partner you can understand what is romantic to them. The key to this is open and honest communication.

It matters not whether you are male or female; both sexes have a desire to feel special. Women want their men to listen to them and to take them seriously. Men want to feel that their interests are shared. Isn't it important then to help each other and the relationship grow by sharing these things with each other? You need to take time together every week to talk about these things and learn about each other.

Discover your loved one's interests, share them, and make them special by making each occasion unique. For example if your partner likes to dance, plan a special evening. Go the extra distance by making it a unique experience; a moonlight dance followed by a much wanted gift. Even if you have a romantic meal at a restaurant, each event should be a different occasion in itself.

Explore each other's desires. Would he like an all over body massage? Would she like a bubble bath and rose petals on the bed? Make love until dawn and the stars turn to dust. Learning about each other should never end, even after years of marriage people change, there are always new adventures to be had.

Courtship is the process of selecting and attracting a mate.

It is governed by a complex set of unwritten rules that are loosely defined as etiquette. Such rules dictate where, when, with whom and in what manner we all attract the opposite sex. We generally obey these unofficial rules by instinct but we also only become aware of the rules when someone commits a breach of them.

Online Advertising for Dating Services

Companies offering dating services are investing increasing amounts in advertising, according to a new study, with online advertising seeing particular growth.

Research carried out by Nielsen Monitor-Plus found that such firms in the US, in particular online dating sites, spent $127.3 million advertising online in 2006. This is up from $88.9 million spent the previous year and the second highest area of investment for dating services. Of the 12 dating services firms advertising online, seven companies were "almost exclusively using the internet for advertising", the report found.

The top ten dating services firms accounted for 96 per cent of the total advertising spend for the industry, some $290 million of $302 million.

It only makes sense to advertise your Dating Site online and it's even more important if your site is new in the industry.

Does a romantic moment need to cost money? No, absolutely not. A touch to the side of the face, holding hands, a smile, a gentle kiss, a flower from the garden-none of these cost a dime, but mean the world to someone you love.

Dating or courtship is the process of choosing and attracting a mate for companionship, sex, marriage and/or sexual reproduction. It is also the pre-arranged meeting (exclusive) of two people with mutual interest in one another to communicate with and to comprehend through shared participation in social activities. According to western tradition, a date is an occasion when one socializes with a potential lover or spouse for the purpose of being deeply acquainted with each other as also to come to an understanding whether they wish to have a purposeful relationship.

Though dating was generally sponsored through friends or relatives, the Second World War diminished such opportunities to a great extent, giving rise to commercial dating agencies. Newspapers and magazine ads contributed to the cause too. However, post-Internet days have brought a sea change in dating and mate-finding anonymously. Online dating services today provide unlimited dating extravaganza on the monitor without any commitment tagged to it. Ladies and men can now tap the online resources with the click of a mouse and carry on love duels without disclosing identity. Though this online intimacy can be instantly arousing, yet its pitfalls are of concern since none of the parties can ever guess an inch of the other's inner life or face read either of them. However, the world becoming more and more full of 'singles', online dating gives the opportunity to know more and more people and even find a life partner.
