

My soul is the part of me I least understand. Somewhat an illusive commodity... but I know this of my soul... "It believes". It believes in me, in you, in us, in the bond that we have embraced, and will continue throughout this life and whatever lies beyond.

My soul longs for something greater, is patient, is kind, not envy, not boastful, not proud, not rude, not self-seeking, not easily angered, keeps no record of wrongs, does not delight in evil, rejoices with the truth, always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres, never fails, and endures forever everlasting.

I'll forever love you... and this I vow to the end of time. All my love, for all your life.

Seniors and Romance

There is no such thing as being too old to be in love. There was a couple that recently married and they were both over 70 years old. A person is only as old or as limited as they believe to be. If a person feels old, chances are they act old and really look old too. On the other hand, an older man or woman can have the romantic heart and mind of a teenager and look much younger than they are. It is all about attitude really.

The key is to be light-hearted in your day to day life as a senior. One should never take things too seriously, as this sort of attitude ages people beyond their years. It is the light-hearted seniors who attract people to them not the ones who worry all the time and take everything too seriously. Those who are light-hearted draw love into their lives, regardless of a person's age. Age is secondary to the inner happy spirit of a person.

If you are a senior who wants to fall in love, here is how you do it. You need to be able to laugh both at yourself and at others. Maintain a joyful inner and outer personality. Being joyful means having the ability to focus on the positive aspects of life rather than the negative ones. This does not mean pretending the negative aspects of life do not exist but rather to acknowledge negativity and move on to more positive things. Attitude is everything. It is not so much what happens to you but rather how you deal with what happens.

Love and romance is out there for everyone who seeks it. It is just a matter of doing those things, which draw love and romance into your life. As a

Courtship is the process of selecting and attracting a mate.

It is governed by a complex set of unwritten rules that are loosely defined as etiquette. Such rules dictate where, when, with whom and in what manner we all attract the opposite sex. We generally obey these unofficial rules by instinct but we also only become aware of the rules when someone commits a breach of them.

Research carried out by Nielsen Monitor-Plus found that such firms in the US, in particular online dating sites, spent $127.3 million advertising online in 2006. This is up from $88.9 million spent the previous year and the second highest area of investment for dating services. Of the 12 dating services firms advertising online, seven companies were "almost exclusively using the internet for advertising", the report found.

The top ten dating services firms accounted for 96 per cent of the total advertising spend for the industry, some $290 million of $302 million.
