

Romantic Weekend Ideas

So the weekend is almost here and you and your loved one are in the process of planning a romantic weekend together. Let's consider some romantic activities that you can both enjoy together. Often, the most fun activities that couples can do together cost very little money but require some creative thinking.

First of all you should decide if you plan to stay home or go out of town for the weekend. If it a long weekend, it may want to go out of town for a few days. If you are on a limited budget, you may want to consider camping somewhere rather than staying at a hotel or cottage. If money is not an issue, go for a cottage by the lake for sure, ahead of a hotel somewhere. There is a certain romance to staying in a cottage that you don't get by staying in a hotel. There is just something very sexy about being secluded with your loved one in a cottage by a lake somewhere.

If you go the cottage route, look on the Internet for a cottage that you both like and book it ahead of time. It is always nice to have something like this to look forward to together. The ideal situation is that the cottage is less than 2 hours away, so that you can go there after work on Friday and check in, maximizing your long weekend together. Be sure to bring lots of food, snacks, pop, juice, water, wine or beer with you. Also, it is good to have lots of music to listen to.

If you decide to camp instead, that is a lot of fun. There are so many campgrounds that you can find online. Find one you like that is not too far away and book a site. Wooded sites with water are great and Courtship is the process of selecting and attracting a mate.

It is governed by a complex set of unwritten rules that are loosely defined as etiquette. Such rules dictate where, when, with whom and in what manner we all attract the opposite sex. We generally understand these rules by instinct but sometimes our instincts are wrong without us knowing.

Online Advertising for Dating Services

Companies offering dating services are investing increasing amounts in advertising, according to a new study, with online advertising seeing particular growth.

Research carried out by Nielsen Monitor-Plus found that such firms in the US, in particular online dating sites, spent $127.3 million advertising online in 2006. This is up from $88.9 million spent the previous year and the second highest area of investment for dating services. Of the 12 dating services firms advertising online, seven companies were "almost exclusively using the internet for advertising", the report found.

The top ten dating services firms accounted for 96 per cent of the total advertising spend for the industry, some $290 million of $302 million.

It only makes sense to advertise your Dating Site online and it's even more important if your site is new in the industry.

electricity if you need it. Many people just use candles and lanterns. It is just a matter of choice. The more outdoors the experience the better as you want to feel at one with nature and the one you love. There is nothing as romantic as the man and women in nature feeling.

For those that are camping, be sure to plan your meals ahead of time and buy all the food and drinks that you need. There should be 2 coolers, one for drinks and one for foods that need to be kept cold. Select your meals together. Steak is a great supper for one night and so are hotdogs and hamburgers on the BBQ. Be sure to bring lots of chips and dip and also a good bottle of wine and several cans of beer.

Bacon and eggs in the morning is a must! There is nothing that smells more amazing than bacon frying at a campsite on a sunny Saturday morning! Bring coffee too! Coffee made in a pot on a Coleman stove is outstanding!! You should get one of those wire toaster things too, as they make great toast! If you happen to have homemade jam, be sure to bring a bottle with you. Never forget the marshmallows or ketchup for that matter. Ketchup is critical for some people.

Picnics are fun weekend activities too! Sometimes it is just fun and romantic to pack a good picnic and drive along the coast somewhere to where you can stop and enjoy it together. These are the sorts of activities that stay with a person forever as they embrace all the great things that a relationship is. Just a drive in the country somewhere together can be fun. Maybe you will want to stop along the way to have supper at a roadside dinner somewhere that you never tried before.

The key is to be creative and spontaneous together in planning your romantic weekends. Drive to an outdoor market somewhere. Check out the yard sales. Have breakfast out somewhere new. Maybe coffee and dessert is in order at a small café somewhere. Be yourselves and just drift together and have fun!! It is often the simple things in life that matter the very most and are the most romantic too.
